Off-Lead Walking

Dogs will never be walked off lead without prior discussion and the consent of the owner and off-lead walking will be dependant upon the reliability of your dog's recall, how they interact with other dogs and their surroundings.

Dogs will only be walked off-lead if I, as dog walker consider it safe to do so. I will never guarantee that I will walk dogs off-lead, even if arranged, as it depends on multiple factors such as weather, location, other dogs and dog behaviour. Walking off-lead may only be for a section of the walk, not the full duration.

Your Consent

I hereby, give Nicola Hoare (Woof and Walks) permission to walk my dog(s) off-lead during any scheduled walk undertaken. I also understand the potential consequences that can occur to my dog or other dogs, from walking my dog off-lead while in the care of Woof and Walks.

I agree to release Nicola Hoare (Woof and Walks) from all liability in the event of loss, injury or harm resulting from my dog being walked off-lead.

I understand that Nicola Hoare (Woofs and Walks) will have less control over my dog(s) actions & I therefore I accept full liability for any damage caused to or by my dog, and take full responsibility for the actions or disappearance of my dog whilst off-lead walking.
